

Japanese Course for Foreign Exchange Students Syllabus

Class Name	Japanese III (B) [Conversation/Listening Comprehension]
Offered Semester	Fall Semester
Topic	Mastering intermediate level conversation and listening skills.
Class Outline	Students will talk about “Culture Notes” to understand Japanese culture. Shadowing conversation is done for students to get used to speaking Japanese naturally and by looking over the contents will help students to understand the flow of Japanese conversation. Students will also learn the “Key points of Conversation Exercise” from each chapter and master the skills used in the dialogues. Role plays and group based conversation practices will be done using skills learned from “Key points of Conversation Exercise” which help students using these skills within everyday conversation. Composition writing will be required to be handed in as homework every week based on the discussed topic in class. Students will also be required to listen to the textbook CD after each class for homework and answers to the listening exercises will be discussed in the following week.
Objectives	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The topic “Exchange student living in Japan” is used for this class to aim student’s understanding of Japan and develop speaking and listening skills. 2. The aim for speaking is to master skills to speak naturally depending on the interlocutor and situation. 3. The aim for listening is to listen and understand the important information.
Class Format	Lectures (including occasional pair and group-based activities)