Twelve people are in this photo. I think that eleven of them are students, and one of them is a teacher. It looks like they are pretending to camp at a school. They seem to be having fun while doing a variety of activities. One student is happily riding a scooter. Two other students are playing musical instruments. One is playing a ukulele and another is playing a recorder. The teacher is barbecuing some food on a camp stove. I think that everyone will enjoy a barbecue lunch very soon. If I were there, I'd love to eat something with them and play my guitar in harmony with the students who are playing the ukulele and the recorder. In conclusion, I really envy the enjoyable time that these people are having, and I wish I could be there with them. (140 words) (計20)
